An impressive French style family home in prestigious Mostertsdrift. Elegant and sophisticated with quality finishes, yet functional. This impeccable home with light spacious living areas has been renovated. The house is designed to maximise the flow between indoor and outdoor living areas with folding patio doors that lead to the garden and pool areas. The house has excellent proportions and is perfectly appointed to entertain in style with the relaxed indoor-outdoor flow to the garden and pool. This property features functional living rooms, an open plan gourmet kitchen and a wine tasting room next to the kitchen. It offers separate entertaining areas for the winter.

Within walking distance to outstanding primary and secondary schools, community shopping centre, University of Stellenbosch, and a selection of hiking and cycling trails makes this location very convenient and sought after. The property falls within the Jonkershoek Special rating area (24h security patrol and response) which adds to a safe environment
